Shri Jagdishprasad Jhabarmal Tibrewala University came into its pious existence in 2009. The University has been marching ahead on its uphill journey since its inception. It has since become synonymous with dedication, commitment, and service to the community in this remote area of the Shekhawati region of Rajasthan. It is universally recognized for its impeccable credentials of being a top-ranking University among private Universities all over the state.

(iii) University Schools/Centres/Academic Staff College of KUHS/Institutions affiliated to the University, with proven track record as evidenced by,

- Two publications in peer-reviewed, indexed research scientific/professional Journals, from Schools/Centres/Academic Staff College of KUHS/each Department (to be recognised) of the Institution affiliated to the University, in the last five years.
- Recognised by the University as having necessary facilities for a PhD programme.

4.3 Inspection of institutions to be recognised:- University, if deemed necessary, on the recommendation of the Vice Chancellor, on behalf of the Governing Council, may cause an inspection to be made, of an institution to be recognised, by such person or persons as authorised in this behalf, and the report of the same to be submitted to the University. This report requires subsequent approval by the Academic Council and the Governing Council to get recognition of the Institution as the 'Centre of Research' for PhD. The Academic council may make appropriate changes in the mode of inspection from time to time.

4.4 Withdrawal of recognition of institutions: - If at any time the Governing Council is convinced, either on receipt of a report of inspection or otherwise, that any of the terms and conditions imposed on a recognised institution at the time of granting recognition to it, is altered by the Institution/not fulfilled/not complied with or that the institution is otherwise unfit to be continued as recognised institution, the Governing Council may, by a University Order, withdraw recognition of such institution. Before making such order of withdrawal of recognition, the University shall by notice, afford the institution concerned, an opportunity of making its representation, if any, within 30 days from the day of receipt of the notice and University shall record its opinion on any representation, if made.

5. Supervising Guide

5.1 Recognition of Supervising Guide.

- (i) No person shall ordinarily be recognised as a Supervising Guide unless the,
- a) Candidate has 3 (three) years' Post PG teaching/research experience and acquired a Degree of Doctor of Philosophy (PhD), with research experience as evidenced by at least 2 (two) research publications after PhD, in peer reviewed, indexed scientific/professional Journals and he/she is a permanent teaching faculty/teacher (including visiting/adjunct/honorary/emeritus professors) in one of the Institutions of the University/affiliated institutions of the University.

OR

c) Candidate is a permanent teaching faculty/teacher (including visiting/adjunct/honorary/emeritus professors) in the Institutions of the University or affiliated Institution of the University, who have 5 (five) years of Post PG teaching/research experience with 5 (five) research publications in peer-reviewed, indexed scientific/professional Journals after acquiring PG degree in Health/Allied Sciences/Cognate subjects.

(ii) Scientists in the service of a Recognised R&D Institutions/Research Laboratories/other Institutions, qualified to be a 'Centre of Research' of KUHS (sub-clause 4.2.a, 4.2.b), with 5 (five) years of research experience after being awarded the degree of PhD and at least 2 (two) research publications in peer reviewed, indexed scientific/professional Journals, in his/her credit, will be also eligible to become a recognised Supervising Guide.

(iii) Any other outstanding person recommended by Board of Studies and the concerned Faculty and approved by Academic Council, whose services will be of value to the University, as a Supervising Guide, may also be given recognition as a Supervising Guide.

(iv) Transitory provision - In the case of faculty of Homeopathy/ Faculty of Ayurveda/other existing or emerging specialties, where there are no sufficient number of PhD holders/persons eligible to be PhD Supervising Guides as prescribed above, the conditions can be relaxed for first five years (from the date of decision of Senate meeting dated 14/03/2019). Thus, a permanent teaching faculty/teacher in the Institutions affiliated to the University having 10 (ten) years of Post PG teaching or research experience can apply for recognition as a Supervising Guide of the University and the University may consider the application and may take a favourable decision and may enlist them as "Supervising Guide (under transitory provision)". Such a Supervising Guide (under transitory provision) should publish (or have received intimation of acceptance for publication) at least have 2 (two) research publications in peer reviewed, indexed scientific/professional Journals, before the

Guidelines for submitting Post Graduate thesis

These guidelines are applicable to the courses where dissertation is an eligibility criteria for writing the examination (Eg:-MD/MS/MDS courses) and it is implemented from the year 2016 onwards.

1. Purpose of thesis:

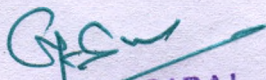

Every candidate for Post graduate/ super specialty course in the institutions of/affiliated to KUHS shall carry out a research work under the guidance of a recognised postgraduate teacher, which shall be written up and submitted in the form of a thesis. The purpose of the thesis is to develop the spirit and skill of enquiry, to train the candidate to formulate scientifically sound research question, to help them learn the techniques of research, analysis, documentation and dissemination of the outcome of research.

2. Submission of synopsis –time lines /pre requisites

The candidate shall submit a synopsis/protocol of the project he/she propose to conduct, through the online system of the university. The synopsis/protocol along with a certificate of clearance from Institutional review board (consisting both technical committee and ethics committee of the institution) shall be submitted within 6 months (4 months for 2-year candidates) from the date of start of the course. A grace period of 2 months with late fee (as fixed by the University from time to time) shall be allowable. The candidates who fail to submit the synopsis even within the time allowable with late fee are liable to do an extension of their course to meet the various time requirements. Eg: . The 2-year course candidates who fail to submit the protocol within 6 months of starting the course are liable to do an extension of their course so as to provide enough time to complete the thesis. A 3-year course candidate who fails to submit the synopsis/protocol within 8 months of starting the course has to apply through proper channel and get permission to submit the synopsis with additional late fee as fixed by the university from time to time.

Note: Minimum time required to complete thesis work by the candidate (including data collection, analysis, writing up and submission) is estimated as 9 months. University needs 3 months for processing the protocol and approval and the completed thesis has to be submitted to the University 6 months before the expected date of final examination. They should apply through proper channel and get permission to submit synopsis//protocol with additional late fee (over and above the late fee mentioned above) fixed by the university from time to time

3. Review of synopsis at the University:

The synopsis submitted by the student has to be cleared by guide and the Principal of the institution. Principal may submit the protocol to KUHS. KUHS shall assign one methodology expert and one subject expert from a protocol review panel selected by it from time to time. Those proposals cleared by both experts in the review panel will need final clearance by the faculty dean and by KUHS.

There are four possible decisions from the reviewers–

1. Accept.
2. Resubmit with minor modifications.
3. Resubmit with major modification.
4. Reject.

This process to be completed within 3 months of submission of the thesis to KUHS and the decision will be made available through the website.

- If the decision is to accept with minor modification, candidate can make the modifications through the website itself and can get the approval letter from the University.
- If the result is to resubmit with major modification/rejection, fresh submission, with a fresh letter of approval from IRB and complete in all other aspects has to be made within 3 months with late fees as applicable. Such re-submissions will have to undergo review at KUHS as a fresh application.

Resubmission with modifications has to be sent to the same experts who originally reviewed the protocols except in situations where they are not available for review for various reasons.

Protocol for clinical / animal/ and toxicological trials must be accompanied with certificates of approval from concerned regulatory authorities.

4. Process of Thesis

Selection of guide: Those with 5 years of post PG teaching experience in the same specialty in which thesis is carried out and working in the same department at the time of submission can become a guide for PG thesis. Any faculty member with post-graduation in the same stream (medical/ dental/ nursing/ pharmacy etc.) working in the same institution, either in the same department or in any of the other departments involved in the conduct of the submitted thesis work can become a co- guide. Guide and co guide is expected to review the thesis work at least once in a month.

Any Faculty member or a researcher with Post Graduate degree in the same stream (Medical/Dental/Nursing/Pharmacy/Ayurveda/Homeopathy etc) or rarely in other streams (as multidisciplinary), if the research topic demands, having teaching/research experience of not less than 5 years, working in the same institution, other teaching institutions or research canter's affiliated/ under KUHS having research interests in the same area where the candidate is doing Research/thesis can become a co-guide. The provision of Co-Guide is not mandatory and it is to have an additional support, if needed, to the P G student to complete the thesis/research work. The Co-Guide is expected to review the thesis work, thereby may help to improve the quality of the thesis

5. Change of guide:

In the event of resignation/ demise/long leave of the guide/dismiss/any other situation in which the guide is unavailable for guiding the thesis, the Principal of the institution in consultation with the head of the department should suggest a change of guide to the university within one month of the event through the university website .If this stipulation is not complied, the final thesis submitted is liable to be rejected without sending for evaluation. In case of transfer of guide if the guide is willing he or she can continue as guide provided co-guide is available in the institution.

If the data collection is complete and if the guide is willing, he/ she can continue as guide for the rest of the period in spite of transfer/long leave/resignation of the guide.

6. Change /modification of title:

Minor changes in the title can be made by application through University Website through the guide, head of the department and principal (for a maximum of 1time during the course). Changes involving methodology have to be resubmitted with new IRB (technical and ethics committee clearance and late fees as applicable for delay in submission).

7. Similar studies:

Protocol that resembles (exactly or very closely) any previously done study, are liable to be rejected. Candidates are advised to go through the database of the studies (in the website of the University) previously registered in the university to avoid exact repetition of the studies.

Fees:

8. Writing of thesis

Paper: Use only high quality, plain white, 20-lb unlined bond paper, and 20.32cmX27.94cm (8-1/2" x 11") in size. Erasable paper should not be used.

Select fonts type Times New Roman/Arial/Tahoma and size of characters 12 for main text (not in bold) and 10 for notes/foot notes (not in bold) etc. The size of the titles should be 14 and Bold, the size of subtitles should be 12 and bold. Print should be inkjet or laser (not dot matrix) printing with dark black characters that are consistently clear and dense. Use the same type of print and print size throughout the document. Number the pages of the document, including the principal text, all plates, tables, diagrams, maps, and so on. Roman numerals should be used on the preliminary pages (pages up to the first page of text) and Arabic numerals on the text pages. The numbers themselves can be placed anywhere on the page, however they should be consistent. Use 1.5 spacing except for long quotations, footnotes, and endnotes, which are to be singlespaced. To allow for binding, the left-hand margin must be at least 3.81 cm(1.5 inch). Other margins should be 2.58cm(1inch) Diagrams, photographs, or facsimiles in any form should be a standard page size, or if larger, folded so that a free left-hand margin of 3.81 cm(1.5 inch) remains and the folded sheet is not larger than the standard page. Photographs (colour or black and white) should of good quality and printed on photography paper. File Format of Thesis should be in *.PDF, *.odt, *.docx or *.doc (MS Word Document) extension, Image files in JPG/JPEG or TIFF format and Audio Visual in AVI, GIF, MPEG files format preferably.

Avoid same information represented in more than one format (e.g. table/picture/ graph and text). All tables and Figures should be simple, numbered, titled and self-explanatory. Citation should be in Vancouver style. List of figures, tables and chapters should be separately provided before the main text.

CD-ROM Labelling Should be standard and should contain title, subtitle, name of the candidate, degree name, subject, name of the guide, name of the department, college, place and year.

9. Submission /re submission of thesis to University

Four hard copies of the thesis and a soft copy in CD/DVD, which is checked for plagiarism, should be submitted. Thesis can be submitted only after 9 months of getting approval of the protocol by the university. Submission should be at least six months before the final examination and after remitting the prescribed fee. The thesis shall be examined by a minimum of three examiners; one from other institutions (other than that institution, where the research was conducted) affiliated to KUHS (who is/was not a guide for the same candidate for the same thesis) and two examiners from other Universities.

- If two examiners accept the thesis, it will be accepted by the University.
- If two examiners suggest changes, resubmission of thesis has to be made within 45 days with suggested changes incorporated. If two examiners reject the thesis, thesis has to be re submitted. Resubmitted thesis will undergo the same method of evaluation as a fresh thesis.
- If the original decision is 're-submission with changes', the resubmitted thesis will be evaluated by the same examiners who assessed it first, if they are available for evaluation.
- In case of rejection of thesis, extension of course/ work in the department up to one year may be granted to carry out thesis work, if the candidate requests for it. The hall ticket of the final examination will be issued only after final acceptance of the thesis.

10. Plagiarism policy:

University will formulate a plagiarism policy and the thesis should adhere to the policy formulated by the university time to time.

Maximum number of pages (printed only on one side) should be 200 including master sheet, appendix, addendum etc. There will not be a specified minimum for number of pages.

11. Publication and dissemination of thesis:

The data collected for the thesis can be used for publication in scientific journals/or presented in the scientific conferences before/after the examinations. The proof of submission/acceptance/publication/presentation may be appended with the final thesis. Any such publication should carry due acknowledgement to KUHS and the institution in which work was carried out'.

12. Template for thesis:

University will provide templates for final thesis, which may be used for final submission. The template for thesis shall contain, the following sections- Abstract, Background, Relevance, Objectives, Methodology, Results, Discussion, Conclusions, and References.
