ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE POLICY & GUIDELINES

PK Das college of nursing has constituted a committee known as the Anti-Ragging Committee, nominated and headed by the Head of the institution, and consisting representatives of faculty members, non-teaching staff, representatives of civil and police administration, local media and Non-Government Organizations involved in youth activities. The committee will be further expanded, at the onset of the college to include students and parents.

PK Das college of nursing follows the regulations defined by the section 26 of the University Grants Commission Acts 1956, the regulations shall be called the "UGC regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in higher education institutions 2009"

INC REGULATIONS ON RAGGING

Indian Nursing Council (INC) has made it very clear that all INC approved institutions should strictly follow the directions of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and Raghavan Committee recommendations without exception. It is clearly mentioned in the regulation that RAGGING is totally banned and anyone found guilty of ragging and/or abetting ragging is liable to be punished.

OBJECTIVE:

In view of directions of Hon'ble Supreme Court in SLP No 24295 of 2006 dated 16/05/2007 and civil appeal no 887 of 2009 dated 8/05/2009 to prevent, prohibit and eliminate the scourge of ragging.

Ragging is a criminal offence as per the Supreme Court Verdict. It adversely impacts the standards of higher education. So it is mandatory to implement anti-ragging measures and monitoring measures in every college.

It bring to your kind notice that, as it is a collective responsibility to ensure that the effective measures are taken to prevent ragging in each college, please take the following steps and sent a report of action taken within a month.
